1st Battalion, 25th Marines

Official FY20 September Drill Notice

First Sergeant's Call

Marines,

For September's drill weekend we will be preparing for the return of the forward-deployed Marines. The actions during this weekend will be setting us up for the successful integration and future training.

Ensure that you review the FY21 training schedule and identify any possible scheduling conflicts and bring it to the attention of your chain of command immediately. Keep your eyes on the ball and don't forget the little things. That is what separates us from everyone else and keeps our title of United States Marines so esteemed.

If you reside 50 miles or more from the HTC, review the hotel roster and ensure you are listed. If you are scheduled for a room and do not intend to utilize it notify your chain of command immediately.

Do not forget to print this letter and have it on your person during your travels due to possible COVID related travel restrictions. We are exempt from state travel restrictions per federal essential worker policies, and this letter serves as proof.

Semper Fidelis

Commanding Officer's Comments

Ambush,

September's drill will be our last drill as the "remain behind element" for the Company. In October we will rejoin with the remainder of the Marines from the Company and begin our FY21 training plan. September will focus on maintenance of all gear and weapons, physical training (introducing tactical movements) as well as sustainment of the concepts that you have executed over the summer. As always, monitor and maintain your physical fitness, continue to practice social distancing, and notify your leadership if you are experiencing any symptoms or signs of COVID-19. I look forward to seeing you all in September.

We are preparing for the company to return from the post-deployment dark period. Ensure you come ready to work with the required gear, a good attitude, and a sense of humor! I look forward to seeing you all again. KILL THE ENEMY!

- If there is a need for supplies, especially for instruction purposes, please bring it to my attention. Keep in mind all training exercises that are soon approaching. It is my duty to ensure we have what we need at all times.
- If you're outside the 50 miles, please keep us aware of your attendance and travel arrangements during drill weekends. I want to make sure every Marine that needs a room, has one; and those who won't, inform us promptly.
